SNC OFFICE

It is with much excitement that we announce that Bro. Peter Pitchko, OSBM will be joining the Basilian Community at St. Nicholas. He will be joining the parish for a yearlong "pastoral experience" or internship beginning August 1, 2019. Brother Peter Pitchko was born in Edmonton, AB on March 8th, 1989 to Murray and Edith Pitchko. Peter was raised in St. Albert along with his two older sisters Megan and Jessica. After completing high school in St. Albert, Peter went to the JR Shaw School of Business at NAIT. He graduated from the BBA Accounting program in 2011 and from there went to work in an accounting position in industry. Peter worked for two years with the same company, all the while discerning a vocation to the religious life. After being offered a promotion with the company he realized that he could no longer resist the call to the religious life. Within a few months he had entered the candidacy program of the Order of Saint Basil the Great. Peter just recently completed a MDiv degree at Newman Theological College.
