Since the Public Health Measures enacted to help curb the spread of COVID in March 2020, several parishioners have passed away without the opportunity of having a parish funeral in church. On Saturday June 18, 2022, at 10am, there will be Memorial Liturgy for those Parishioners that have died during the lockdowns, with coffee and sweets following in the hall. We encourage both the families who have lost loved ones, as well as all parishioners to this Memorial Liturgy and coffee reception, to pay their respects and offer condolences to the families and friends of the deceased parishioners of St. Nicholas.
