BEYOND OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

FALL SUPPER

On Tuesday, November 19, 2024, we will mark 1,000 days since Russia launched a full-scale war against Ukraine. This horrific war has brought destruction to many cities, towns, and villages. Thousands of civilians have died in daily bombardments, and thousands of soldiers have sacrificed their lives bravely defending Ukraine. Despite the difficult situation, our Ukrainian people have shown tremendous resilience and have been able to fend off the enemy thanks to assistance from Canada and other allied countries. As a parish, let us offer prayers to honor and commemorate all who died in the war—soldiers, civilians, and children. Let us ask the good Lord to receive them in His Kingdom and hear our prayers for victory and the end of the war in Ukraine.

91ST ANNIVERSARY: HOLODOMOR FAMINE

In remembrance of the 91st Anniversary of the Holodomor Famine Genocide of the Ukrainian people, on Saturday, November 23, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. at Winnipeg City Hall, 510 Main Street, a panachyda memorial service will be served by Ukrainian Orthodox and Ukrainian Catholic clergy of Winnipeg. All members of the public are invited to attend.
